a company must inform the business registrar (roc) about the appointment of its auditor after the conclusion of agm (annual general meeting) in a defined manner. the ADT-1 form must be used here. the adt-1 form is used by a company to intimate the business registrar about the appointment of an auditor after the completion of its annual general meeting (aug.) Article 139.1 of the new company law of 2013 states that this and this form should be presented each year after the agm in which the auditor was appointed. details of the auditor who will be presented details such as the category of auditor (firm or individual professional,) number of auditor, number of members of the accounting account, address, e-mail address, period for which the appointment is made, date of agm, number of members of vacant auditor, date and occasional vacancy rate if any etc. When should you submit the ADT-1 form? the ADT-1 form should be submitted to the business registrar within 15 days of the date of appointment of the auditor. For example, if the company's agm was held on September 30, 2018, the adt 1 form has to be submitted by October 15, 2018. What are the documents to be submitted together with the ADT-1 form?The list of documents to be attached along with the ADT-1 form are- copy of the company's written consent of the auditor a certificate of the auditor that was not disqualified to be appointed as auditor What is the duty to submit the ADT-1 form? the fees to submit the adt 1 form with the company registrar are: SL.NoShare capital value company's worth not filing out the ADT-1 form on time? The late submission of the form ADT 1 will attract these penalty charges specified below: SL.NoDelay in Filing (Not of days)Penalty 1Up to 30 2 times of Normal Fees2More than 30 to 60 4 times of NormalMore than 60 to 90 6 times of normal rates4 more than 90 to 180 10 times of normal rates5 more than 180 12 times of the normal rates points to remember the presentation of the form ADT 1 is mandatory for all companies, either in list / without listing / public / private / others. There is a general thought that does not require the ADT Form 1 to be filed for the appointment of the first auditor. This is due to the fact that rule 4 (2) of the Company Rules, 2014 mentions only about SEC 139 (1) - Appointment of auditors and not about SEC 139 (6) "name of the first auditor. However, it is a good practice to submit the ADT 1 form for the appointment of the first auditor as well. The responsibility for submitting Form ADT 1 is that of the company and not in the form of the auditor ADT 1. ADT 1 must be presented even in the event of an appointment of the auditor for an informal vacancy. The electronic presentation of the form ADT-1 Form ADT 1 can be filed. The form can be downloaded from the Ministry of Corporate Affairs (MCA) The E-Form website is automatically approved once the E-FORMA Authority is registered, an e-mail is sent to the registered e-mail ID companies (auditors and auditors) Rules of Amendment, 2018 in February 2018, rules of modified companies (auditors and auditors) of MCA, 2014 in which they replace the form ADT 1 and form ADT-2 with new forms. Thus, the new ADT Form 1 is available on the MCA website for the current year. You can see these forms here. Present your income tax for free in 7 minutes free, simple and accurate.
