Intuitive soul meaning

Dear Bonnie, I heard that every medium is a medium, but not every medium is a medium. Can you explain the difference between the two readings and the different that you might look for? -- IreneCara Irene: A medium is a psychic who has perfected his extrasensory perception and can speak to the spirit world. It simply means that a medium can give you information from other sources and energies, and then go into the spirit world and communicate with your loved ones, spiritual guides and divine to bring you a complete message. Both are very precious, depends only on the type of reading you need at that time. Intuitive means «Voce del Divino» (God, angels, guides), while psychic means «communication between soul and soul.» This reading helps to clarify your questions about love, career, relationships, money and much more, so you can make informed decisions for your ideal outcome and consciously guide your way of life. This would give you a better understanding of the path of your life. As I give a reading of medianity, I connect with your loved ones on the other side. I see, with clarity, the person who goes by to talk to you and can describe his features and clothes he wears, giving proof of who is passing. Then I tune to listen to your loved ones while they talk, which is called clairaudience, and the conversation begins. Your loved ones arrive during a reading, bringing evidence of who you are talking about, but in the end, it's the message they have for you that matters. It's a very healing session. They know what you've been doing since they went to the spirit world. Celebrate your birthdays and children born. Another reading that is very important is a spiritual evaluation of the soul. Have you ever wondered what talents and gifts you might have but not been using due to the fear of following your spiritual path? A spiritual evaluation is a soul-reading to find out where the path of life wants to take you. Find the blocks that have prevented you from reaching your full potential, which could be your next move to get you on the best road, recognizing what your soul wants you to know. These readings will help to evolve and develop your full potential and the steps you can do to experience the greatest journey of your life. These readings are intended to heal all those involved. spirit, spirit, spirit. I know I am here to carry out God's work to prove that life is eternal, angels and guides surround you, and that we are never alone. Readings can be a great way to find the guide you are looking for and knowing that your loved ones are safe and happy on the other side. Bonnie Page is a psychic medium and master of reiki. It is available for private reading and reiki sessions at Messages from Heaven Healing andCenter, 646 Central St., Suite 3, Leominster, or by phone at 978-297-9790.
