VERSE 2: Oh that old and Aspera Cruz, so despised by the world, it has a wonderful attraction; Because the beloved Lamb of God left the glory of her up to take her to the Dark Calvary. So I caress the old rugged cross, until my trophies finally lie down; I cling to the old rugged cross, and some day I will change it by a crown. VERSE 3: In that old steep cross, stained with such divine blood, I see an admirable beauty, because in that old cross Jesus suffered and died, to forgive me and sanctify me. So I caress the old rugged cross, until my trophies finally lie down; I cling to the old rugged cross, and some day I will change it by a crown. VERSE 4: The old rugged cross will always be faithful; His vergun and opprobrium will bear a good degree; Then he will call me some day to my distant home, where I will share the glory of him forever. So I'm going to treasure the old rugged cross, until my trophies finally lie down; I cling to the old rugged cross, and some day I will change it by a crown. Crown.
